Yearbook Staff

Hurray! Hurray! Another yearbook is finished through the efforts of many. We hope you enjoy this look back at the 1977-78 school year. Some of you could try being more photogenic next year. But on the whole, you're a good looking group. Special thanks should go to Mr. Hardy (finances), Mrs. Radel (layout and photography), Lynne Stout and Donna Kuhn (Editors), Cindy Marsh (typing), Tom Chaffee (Herff Jones representative), Glen Frutiger (photographer), Mrs. Radel's Art I class (art work), and the entire yearbook staff. Without everyone's cooperation, this book would not be possible.

Dedication

Mr. Robert Umiker

With a great deal of admiration we the Senior Class of 1978, dedicate our yearbook to a man whose ability to teach, administrate and coach has impressed us all. Robert Umiker's intelligence has inspired many students and his understanding has brought him many friendships.

We wish to thank you for being so dependable. We also wish you the luck you deserve.

Mrs. Carla Harkenrider

We the class of 1978 want to take this opportunity to show our appreciation and dedicate this issue of the Quill to Mrs. Carla Harkenrider.

Her contributions as advisor to our class and as play director have been immeasurable. She is a sweet and gentle person as well as a terrific teacher.

There have been rough spots but not enough to hinder our friendship. She helped our senior class tremendously through her patience at the Angelica fair. We love you "Harky" and want to give our book to you.

To the Class of 1978

It is with joy and also with sadness we come to realize that this is your last school year in R.C.S. Your teachers, parents and I hope that you put the skills you have learned to good use in the future. Each of you are prepared to do well and can do well with energy and thoughtfulness.

Our prayers are with you as you go forth.

WHAT SHALL HE TELL THAT SON (?)

A father sees a son nearing manhood.
What shall he tell that son?
"Life is hard; be steel; be a rock."
And this might stand him for the storms and serve him for humdrum and monotony and guide him amid sudden betrayals and tighten him for slack moments.
"Life is soft loam; be gentle; go easy."
And this too might serve him.
Brutes have been gentled where lashes failed.
The growth of a frail flower in a path up has sometimes shattered and split a rock.
A tough will counts. So does desire.
So does a rich soft wanting.
Without rich wanting nothing arrives.
Tell him too much money has killed men and left them dead years before burial:
  and quest of lucre beyond a few easy needs has twisted good enough men sometimes into dry thwarted worms.
Tell him tome as a stuff can be wasted.
Tell him to be a fool every so often and to have no shame over having been a fool yet learning something out of every folly hoping to repeat none of the cheap follies thus arriving at intimate understanding of a world numbering many fools.
Tell him to be alone often and get at himself and above all tell himself no nies about himself, whatever the white lies and protective fronts
  he may use amongst other people.
Tell him solitude is creative if he is strong and the final decisions are made in silent rooms.
Tell him to be different from other people
  if it comes natural and easy being different.
Let him have lazy days seeking his deeper motives.
Let him seek deep for where he is a born natural.
    Then he may understand Shakespeare and the Wright brothers, Pasteur, Pavlov, Michael Faraday and free imaginations bringing changes into a world resenting change.
      He will be lonely enough to have time for the work he knows as his own.

Hold fast to dreams

For if dreams die

Life is a broken-winged bird

That cannot fly.

Hold fast to dreams

For when dreams go

Life is a barren field

Frozen with snow.
